Connoisseurs' Guide

"Flirting here and there with touches of dried berries, briar and caramel, this big, comparatively gutsy young Zin conveys a good sense of substance without getting too tough or veering too far in the direction of unbridled ripeness." May 2010

"The deep ruby/purple-tinged 2007 TODD BROTHERS RANCH OLD VINES

ZINFANDEL reveals an attractive bouquet of white chocolate, briery fruit, spice box, and a Provencal/garrigue-like character. Full-bodied, rich, and heady, this gorgeous Zin possesses both elegance and power."

"Deep red. Brooding nose slowly unfolds to offer deep cherry, blackberry and dark chocolate aromas. Densely packed dark fruit flavors stain the palate but betray no excess sweetness, or hardness. Turns chewier on the finish, leaving behind a powerful, sappy blackberry quality." May/June 2008
